

DRESS CODE

KEEP IN MIND...

- You are representing a delegation, therefore you must dress as one with business/formal attire.
- The dress code exists to promote your image as a delegate and institute formality.
- In this document, we will list the dress code regulations for your debate days.
- You will be given a warning if you fail to follow the dress code.

DO WEAR:

- You must always wear business/formal attire. This includes the following:
  - Knee-length skirt.
  - Blazer
  - Blouse/Button-up shirt
  - Formal pants.
  - Dress shoes
  - Knee - length dress.

DON'T WEAR:

- You may not wear the following, otherwise you will be, ultimately, removed.
  - Spaghetti straps.
  - Blouses without sleeves or large neckline.
  - Short skirts or shorts.
  - Tennis or open-toe shoes.
  - T-shirts.

